First Thoughts

The story of First Baptist Church in Augusta is a story that is seen in thousands of faces and heard in thousands of voices. Over the course of two hundred years, people have served, given, sacrificed, prayed, laughed, cried, worshiped, ministered, hoped, forgiven, blessed, comforted, and formed Christian community together as the people of God known as First Baptist Church. What a story! What a legacy that is left to us from those who have come before us!

One way to hear this story is through the voice of the pastors who have served this church. From the pioneering voice of William Theophilus Brantly, who served as the first pastor of the church, to the yet-unnamed voice of a new pastor, First Baptist Church has been blessed by the ministry of outstanding pastors. Their voices make up a part of the story of the church.

Four of these former pastors are still living, and this Sunday you have a chance to hear from each one in both worship services. Jack Robinson (Pastor from 1953-1974) and Chuck Bugg (Pastor from 1982-1989) will speak to us through video. Tim Owings (Pastor from 1990-2003) and Greg DeLoach (2005-2015) will be present in worship to speak to us. Through the voices of these four men the church can hear again the story of ministry through the life of First Baptist Church. It promises to be a most exciting day of worship. I hope that you will be present this Sunday at 8:30 or at 11:00.

I count each one of these men as friends. I have known Chuck Bugg the longest, going back to my days in elementary school when he was a seminary student coaching YMCA ball at my school. Tim Owings and I became friends during our days together in seminary. Over the past decade, Greg and I have grown in friendship through various connections in the network of Baptist pastoral ministry. And Jack Robinson is my newest friend, whom I met on my first day of preaching in August. I have been grateful for his faithful attendance in worship each week and his continued support of my ministry among you. My life has been enriched because I have known these four pastors as friends.

They have a story to tell. I hope that you will be in worship this Sunday to hear them as our Bicentennial celebration continues.

THE REACH TEAM NEEDS VOLUNTEERS (We need you. . .NOW!)

We have need for 5 volunteers in 2 critical areas: Three people in our Coffee Ministry Team and two people in our Audio/Visual Team. The responsibility for each of the positions is generally one Sunday/month. But each position is vital to the REACH service! Please contact Kurt if you can give one Sunday a month to the continued blessing of your worship service. Contact Kurt: kwachtel@fbcaugusta.org - office (706)731-5365

Computers @ First

A community ministry of First Baptist Church of Augusta

No cost! Register with Tommy Payne @ 706-312-0909 or email tpayne@fbcaugusta.org. All classes held in Walton 101 C & D (Adult Computer Lab). FEBRUARY classes are: Facebook Basics, Tuesdays, February 7 & 14, 9:30-11:30 AM; Excel Basics, Wednesdays, February 15 & 22, 2-4 PM; iPhone/iPad Tips, Tricks, Q&A, Tuesday, February 21, 9:30-11:30 AM; Manage Photos on iPhone/iPad, Tuesday, February 28, 9:30-11:30 AM.

We are seeking volunteers to sign up to regularly bring breakfast items on Sundays before the Reach Contemporary service. If you enjoy having these treats or recognize how much they are appreciated by others, especially the youth, would you consider signing up to bring an item of your choosing one Sunday per month? We need 4 volunteers per week to participate. Please contact Kathy Anderson at 706-825-3020 or Anita Black at 706-414-0487 or sign up on the list located on the breakfast credenza on Sunday mornings. (We recognize that we do not have a 5th Sunday every month, but if this is the only time you can commit, we will be appreciative.) If you are unable to commit to bringing breakfast items once/month, there is a Money Box that sits on the Breakfast Credenza that will allow you to make donations for these snacks. This assistance will allow us to defray costs when we do not have adequate individuals signed up to bring snacks or on special mornings when we would like to enhance the breakfast items available. Thank you in advance for considering helping with this ministry.

Preschool/Children's Search Committee News

The Preschool/Children's Search Committee would like to invite you to provide us feedback as we begin the search for a new Minister. On Sunday, February 12 we will hold a feedback session for the Bloodworth/McPherson Communities in the Fellowship Hall during the Sunday School hour.

To help us plan, please RSVP for the evening session by Wednesday, February 8, to Leah Galey (lgaley@fbcaugusta.org). Please let her know how many children, as well as adults, will be attending.

We are excited to start this process, and appreciate your prayers and support.

Prayer Ministry

How connected are you? This is the question Dr. Hull asked our congregation a few Sundays ago when he preached on prayer (Ephesians 1:15-19). Do you feel connected to God, or do you feel you need to strengthen your connection? If we are honest, we all feel like we want our connection with God to grow stronger. Just as exercise strengthens us physically, prayer strengthens us spiritually. Therefore, the Prayer Ministry is excited to offer First Sunday Prayer starting February 5.

What: First Sunday Prayer

Where: Crusader's Classroom, 2nd floor/Daniel Building

When: First Sunday of each month, 5-6 PM

Why: Simply put, to pray for one another
