

Kim Crabill is the founder and president of Roses and Rainbows Ministries, Inc., and Community COFFEEs (Conversations of Friends of Faith to Encourage and Equip). Her message and passion come from her personal experience of longing to be used by God yet feeling unusable because of past abuse leading to anorexia, diet pill addiction, and depression. Her mother's deathbed challenge set Kim on a new path, a journey she wrote about in her book *Burdens to Blessings*.

Kim and her husband, Lee, moved to Augusta, Georgia when their sons were small and it was there that she began her ministry. Kim remembers sitting on the steps of 509 Brandermill Road when God got her attention, helping her realize how much women need each other for healing and for hope. She invited seven women into her home and because of their love and acceptance, she began to grow into the woman God wanted her to be. The ministry that began in Augusta continues today from Baltimore, Maryland, currently reaching over 500,000 women in 20 countries.

Kim has traveled nationally for more than 25 years, speaking at retreats, conferences, and to Bible study groups, and has been interviewed on national TV and radio. Kim draws upon personal experiences, biblical principles, and her training in counseling to inspire and challenge women to never give up daring to be all God created them to be.

Kim also spreads her message of hope through writing. She is the author of seven books, including *Burdens to Blessings: Unmask Your Burdens and Discover God's Purpose for Your Life*; Burdens to Blessings: Young Adult Edition; A Cup of Christmas; A Cup of Hope; A Cup of Freedom; Ininitely More and Cherished!: 365 Readings that Celebrate God's Love for You.

When not following her ministry passion, Kim follows her first passion of being a wife and mom. Kim and Lee have been married for over 30 years and have two adult sons.
