First Thoughts

Dear Church,

A few days ago I went to Rite Aid to buy some ice for our cooler. I was not sure that I would be successful in my mission, but it was close to my house and I really didn't want to drive to the grocery store. As luck would have it they did have ice. As a matter of fact, that store has a number of things that surprised me. I was less than prepared to walk down one of the aisles and see an entire section dedicated to school supplies! How is it possible that we are already approaching the end of July? I know our kids don't want to talk about it, but school starts back in a little less than three weeks. Time definitely flies, doesn't it?

I mentioned to the cashier that I had not expected to see school supplies already on the shelves and how quickly the summer has passed. She smiled and said, "I've got a first grader this year, and I promise, it seems like yesterday she was starting pre-school. Time flies, doesn't it?"

This Sunday will be the end of my third month as the pastor of FBC Augusta. My days are filled with lunches, meetings, visits, and preparation for our future. I have already fallen in love with our people and our city. Sara has a wonderful job and is surrounded by a community of friends. Our two girls haven't missed a beat since we arrived in Augusta. It seems like yesterday I was preaching a sermon in view of a call. It's all pretty amazing. Time flies, doesn't it?

See you on Sunday, Will

Oh! I also want you to remember that we are only a few weeks away from the August 20th celebration for our 200th anniversary. I am incredibly excited about the opportunity for all of us to worship together again in the sanctuary. One of the primary ways we are celebrating this monumental occasion is by sharing a meal together following our worship service. The deadline for registration is this week and if you have not already made plans to be with us, I hope that you will send in your registration or call the church office to RSVP.

200th ANNIVERSARY NEWS

200th Anniversary Celebration Celebrating 200 years of God's Faithfulness

FBC Veterans... We are still working to get a complete list of our Veterans. Notebooks are in the Church Office Reception Area, at Wednesday night suppers, and after services on Sundays. Please be sure your name is on the list. Also, if you have a family member who is a deceased veteran (parent, grandparent, aunt or uncle) and was a member of our church, be sure to fill out the information requested to have them listed.

Sunday, August 20th, Homecoming. Past staff and their spouses have been invited. I hope that you will invite past members and adult children that grew up in our church. All our buildings will be open for touring. There will be no Sunday School that day, as our combined service will begin at 10:30. There will be a nursery for children 4 and under. Coloring books of the history of our church and crayons will be available for children as you enter the sanctuary for them to enjoy during the service. We will be honoring church members who have worshiped at FBC for over 50, 60, 70 and 80 years! It will be an exciting service with wonderful music. At noon, we will be treated to an 'Old Fashion Homecoming Lunch' that Stephen and his staff have prepared. Homecoming lunch (since it is an August in Augusta) will be served in the Fellowship Hall and the MAC. There will be inflatables for the children near both locations, and also activities for the children set up in the Fellowship Hall, room 1. For dessert, there will be ice cream and birthday cake! The celebration will end with a 200 count balloon launch with our children in the front of the Sanctuary. Please return the RSVP cards you received with your invitation in the enclosed envelope with payment, or bring them by the church office by July 20. Cost is $12/adults; $6/children 12 and under. Also, peanut butter & jelly sandwiches will be available for children 4 and under. Event tickets will be mailed after July 20.

On Sunday, August 27 at 6:30 p.m. our children will present a new version of the musical written for our 175 Anniversary Celebration by Margaret Wiggins. Perhaps your adult child was a part of this performance. Those attending will receive the old program as well as the new program for this performance. Claudia Moller will be directing. The performance will be followed by a birthday party in the Fellowship Hall.
